

Whiterock REIT Completes the Sale of its Interests in Three Quebec City Properties

TORONTO, April 13, 2007 / CNW / - Whiterock Real Estate Investment Trust ("Whiterock" or the "REIT") today announced that it has completed its previously announced sale of its 50% undivided, non-managed interest in three Quebec City properties, being 410 Charest, 750 Charest, and 880-930 Ste-Foy through the exercise of buy-sell provisions in its co-ownership agreement, which were initiated by Whiterock, for $51.75 million before closing costs and adjustments. This represented an in-place cap rate of slightly below 7%.

Whiterock originally acquired its interest in these assets in May 2006 at a purchase price before closing costs of $46.6 million, which was satisfied in part by $32.1 million of new and assumed mortgages at a blended interest rate of 6.0%.

Forward Looking Statements

This news release contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and applicable Canadian securities legislation. Forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements with respect to financial performance, sale-leaseback opportunities, proposed acquisitions and equity or debt offerings, new markets for growth, financial position, comparable commercial REITs and proposed acquisitions. Generally, these forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "plans", "expects" or "does not expect", "is expected", "budget", "scheduled", "estimates", "forecasts", "intends", "anticipates" or "does not anticipate", or "believes", or variations of such words and phrases or state that certain actions, events or results "may", "could", "would", "might" or "will be taken", "occur" or "be achieved".

Forward-looking statements are subject to known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the actual results, level of activity, performance or achievements of Whiterock to be materially different from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements, including but not limited to: the risks related to the market for Whiterock's securities, the general risks associated with real property ownership and acquisition (including in particular but without limitation that any or all of the properties subject to conditional agreement of purchase and sale will be acquired as scheduled and/or on the terms currently anticipated and/or described) that future accretive acquisition opportunities will be identified and/or completed by Whiterock, lease maturities, risk management, liquidity, debt financing, credit risk, competition, general uninsured losses, interest rate fluctuations, environmental matters, restrictions on redemptions of outstanding Whiterock securities, lack of availability of growth opportunities, diversification, reliance on anchor or single tenant properties, potential Unitholder liability, potential conflicts of interest, the availability of sufficient cash flow, fluctuations in cash distributions, the market price of Whiterock's units, the failure to obtain additional financing, dilution, reliance on key personnel, changes in legislation, failure to obtain or maintain mutual fund trust status and delays in obtaining governmental approvals or financing as well as those additional factors discussed in the section entitled "Risk Factors" in Whiterock's Annual Information Form dated March 21, 2007, which can be obtained at www.sedar.com.
